| le le | Board clearly defines the threshold for disclosure and approval of RPTs and cotegorizes such transactions according to those that are considered de minimis or transactions that need not be reported or announced, those that need to be disclosed, and those that need prior shareholder approval. The aggregate amount of RPTs within any twelve (12) month period should be considered for purposes at applying the thresholds for disclosure and approval. | Yes | Provide information on a materiality threshold for RPT disclosure and approval, if any.  Provide information on RPT categories | The Corporation's Material Related Party Transactions Policy adopts the general principles provided under SEC Memorandum Circular No. 10. Series of 2019 and sets the materiality threshold of RPTs at ten percent of the Corporation's total assets based on its latest audited financial statements.  Under the Corporation's Material RPT Policy:  (i) All individual Material RPTs shall be approved by at least two- thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors, with at least a majority of the independent directors voting to approve the Material RPT. In case that a majority of the independent directors' vote is not secured, the Material RPT may be ratified by the vote of the stockholders representing at least two-thirds |

|    |  |     |   | (2/3) of the outstanding capital stock.  (ii) For aggregate RPT transactions within a twelve (12)-month period that breaches the materiality threshold of ten percent (10%) of the Campany's total assets, the same board approval would be required for the transaction/s that meets and exceeds the materiality threshold covering the same related party.   |
